Dear Skip and Chris:

Thank you again for making yourselves available as valuable resources to the members of the Association of General Contractors.

The seminar you presented as part of our Fiscal, Insurance and Risk Management Committee attracted some of our largest and most profitable members. We received very good feedback from your session and think that the seminar that you will be presenting as part of our education program during our Fall Conference in Palm Springs will be very well received. We have already heard that many of our members are looking forward to the event.

In addition, we have received very good responses from our district and regional offices since you had agreed to provide content to their websites and newsletters. Our members are always looking for more ideas to reduce business risks, protect assets from lawsuits, increase the efficiencies of business succession and reduce tax liabilities. You have been very helpful in this endeavor.

We are very happy with this relationship and look to expand our relationship with you both.

Thank you again for all of your help.

Sincerely,

Michael Navin, CPA
CFO/Vice President - Administration
