New York, NY 10017

Dear Mr. Mandell:

Thank you again for participating as a Teaching Course Instructor during The Aesthetic Meeting 2006 in Orlando. Enclosed are the tabulated evaluations for the teaching course(s) you conducted. Please share the results with your co-instructors, if applicable.

The Teaching Course Subcommittee will be reviewing the results, and based upon the information contained in the evaluations, we will begin the planning process for next year's Aesthetic Meeting to be held in New York.

Once again, thank you.

Warmest regards,

Mark Codner

4. As a result of attending this session, the primary thing I will do differently in my practice is...
- Asset protection.
  - Attend to business issues.
  - Look at Nevada exceptions.
  - Look into nonqualified plans.
  - Looking more carefully at financial planning options.
  - Protect my assets.
  - Review my protection.
5. Did any commercial bias negatively impact this presentation(s)? If yes, which presentation and how?
- Promotion of his business.
  - Statements were made regarding risk of large malpractice judgments which I believe were not entirely accurate especially with relevance to California. Was not a big issue in context of entire course.
9. Please offer constructive suggestions or recommendations to improve the presentation and praise when warranted.
- Handout.
  - Very informative.
